

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Pe-ru-na in the Home For Catarrhal Diseases.

Remarkable Cures Effected By Pe-ru-na.
Under date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter: "My wife has been a sufferer from a complication of diseases for the past twenty-five years. Her case has baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. She was also passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life.

"In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of twenty-five years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me."—John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr.

Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:
"I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. I am still cured of catarrh."—John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272.
Mrs. Alla Schwandt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:
"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years. Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If I am ever affected with any kind of sickness, Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."—Mrs. Alla Schwandt.

When old age comes, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR MARCH 5.

Subject: Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles, John vii, 37-46—Golden Text, John vii, 46—Memory Verse, 37—Commentary on the Day's Lesson.

I. Christ teaching in the temple (vs. 37-39). During the closing days of the feast great opposition was stirred up against Jesus, and the Jewish rulers sent officers to apprehend Him, but notwithstanding this He taught boldly in the temple. "Last day." There is a difference of opinion as to whether this was the seventh or eighth day of the feast. Eidersheim thinks it was the seventh day, which was really the last day of the feast. The eighth day was kept as a Sabbath, when there was no ceremony of drawing water from Siloam. "Jesus stood." In the temple court, probably in Solomon's porch. "And cried." Spoke with a voice loud enough so all could hear. "If any man thirst." It was burning autumn weather, when the sun had for months shone in a cloudless sky, and the early rains were longed for. Water at all times is a magic word in a sultry climate like Palestine, but at this moment it had a double power. The ceremonies of pouring water commemorated that part of the wilderness wanderings when the people were suffering from a terrible thirst, and Moses at God's command brought water for them from the rock (Num. 20: 1-11). Now Jesus invites all who were suffering from thirst to drink of the living water of His teachings, to repent of our sins, to thirst for the spiritual necessities; an intense need and desire for pardon, for help, for righteousness, for love, for peace, for comfort, for God, for a worthy life. "Let him who is thirsty." Freely and without hesitancy or reserve. "Come." A very precious invitation. This word ought to come with great force to every soul thirsting after spiritual life. To Jesus it is to believe on Him, to accept His teachings, to repent of our sins, to yield to His commands, to submit to Him fully. "Unto Me and drink." Here we see the absolute sufficiency of Christ for all human need. Jesus confronts the sin and misery and heartache of the world and deliberately declares that He is the panacea for it all.

"He that believeth." To believe has the same meaning as to come, as used in the preceding verse. "Scripture hath said." The reference is not to any one passage, but to the whole of the Old Testament combined. See Isa. 58:11; 44:3; Jer. 31:12; Ezek. 47:1-12, etc. "Out of his belly." The innermost part of man, the soul, the heart. "Shall flow." This clearly implies something received that it may flow from the recipient. It is the source of the outpouring abundance, freshness, continued supply, in contrast with the small, golden pitcher used in the ceremony of pouring water. "Living water." Pure, running water, ever-flowing streams; the opposite of stagnant, malodorous, poisonous water; also life-giving water (chap. 4:10). The gospel of Christ, which is the truth of God received into the heart by the Spirit, brings life, health and joy.

"This spake He." This is John's explanation of Christ's words. "Of the Spirit," etc. The Holy Spirit and His influences were the living waters, abundant, free, purifying, bringing life, health, salvation to the soul, as water to the thirsty, as rain to the parched earth, and making every Christian a source of the same influences which he has received from the Holy Spirit. This is a prophecy of the dispensation of the Spirit which was to commence with the outpouring of the Spirit on the day of Pentecost, and continue through the ages till all the world is brought to Christ. We need to lay more emphasis in our day upon this wonderful gift, both for our individual growth and usefulness and for the salvation of the world. "Not yet given." The dispensation of the Spirit had not been ushered in, and He had not yet been poured out upon the hearts of believers in all His fulness. This cannot mean that the Spirit did not exist and was in no sense present with believers in the Old Testament dispensation.

II. Different opinions concerning Christ (vs. 40-43). "Many said." Those who heard the powerful declarations of Jesus knew that He was more than an ordinary man. "The prophet." Referring to the great prophet predicted by Moses (Deut. 18:15), "whom the Lord would raise up among you from among your brethren." Others supposed would be the forerunner of the Messiah. "From the next verse we see that here He was distinguished from the Messiah. 41. "Others said," etc. These believed Jesus to be the Messiah—the Christ, the Anointed One—whom all pious Jews were expecting at this period, and to whom their religious rites all pointed; though for the most part they were expecting only a temporal king or Redeemer. "Out of Galilee." Christ seemed to them to come from Galilee, because His early home was there and much of His ministry had been there.

"The Scripture said," etc. The Jews knew that the Messiah was to be of the family of David (Psa. 132:11; Isa. 9:6, 7; 11:1-5; Jer. 23:5) and was to be born in Bethlehem (Mic. 5:2; Isa. 7:14, 15, 16), but they did not know that in Christ these Scriptures were fulfilled. All the trouble with this argument was that they did not take care to ascertain the facts. Their quotations of Scripture were an argument in favor of Jesus being the Messiah, for He fulfilled the Scriptures. Many another argument against religion is of this same nature. Men set up a caricature of religion, and arguing against that really presents arguments in favor of true religion as it is in the gospel. "Whence David was?" David was born in Bethlehem and lived there until he was called into the service of Saul, Israel's king. 43. "A division." It means a serious and possibly violent division.

III. The Jews seek His arrest (vs. 44-46). 44. "Some of them." Some of the people, provoked by the controversy would on their own responsibility have carried Him before the Sanhedrin. "The reference here is not to the officers." "But no man," etc. Not even those who had been commanded to do it (see vs. 32, 45). They were fettered on the one hand by fear of the adherents of Jesus and on the other by the secret power of God, impressing them with an involuntary awe, so that they dared not proceed. 45. "The officers." Not Roman soldiers, but temple police, answering to the modern constable. They had been directed by the members of the Sanhedrin to arrest Jesus (vs. 32). "Why," etc. The officers had returned without fulfilling their mission, and the authorities were chagrined. 46. "Never man so spake" (R. V.) Christ spake (1) with authority; (2) with directness to men's hearts; (3) with power; (4) clearly and distinctly.

Record School Attendance.

Remarkable records in attendance were disclosed at the prize distribution in the South Lincolnshire elementary schools. At Dorrington two girls each received a gold watch for attending school for seven consecutive years without being absent once. A boy at Spalding Central school had attended school six years, two boys attended five years and eight boys attended four years without a break. In the Girls' Central School in the same town one scholar had attended seven years, another six years and others five and four years without a single absence.—London Daily Express.

Longest Pastorate on Record.

To the Rev. Laban Ainsworth must in all probability be given credit for holding the longest pastorate, over one church and people that ever was known—seventy-six and a half years. He was born July 15, 1757, in the little town of Woodstock, Connecticut, says a writer in Every Where. When just "of age," he was graduated at Dartmouth college—then the reigning educational institution of America. A year later he was given a license to preach.

His first charge was at Spencerport, N. Y., and in 1871 he went to Jaffrey, N. H., where he commenced a pastorate that for length and continued, steady effort, has never been paralleled in the world.

Chance For a Reformer.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. SALT RHEUM ON HANDS

Suffered Agony and Had to Wear Bandages All the Time—Another Cure by Cuticura.

Another cure by Cuticura is told by Mrs. Caroline Cable, of Waupaca, Wis., in the following grateful letter: "My husband suffered agony with salt rheum on his hands, and I had to keep them bandaged all the time. We tried everything we could get, but nothing helped him until he used Cuticura. One set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills cured him entirely, and his hands have been as smooth as possible ever since. I hope this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers."

A HEALTHY OLD AGE OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use

Lion Coffee, the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory. Lion-heads on every package. Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.
